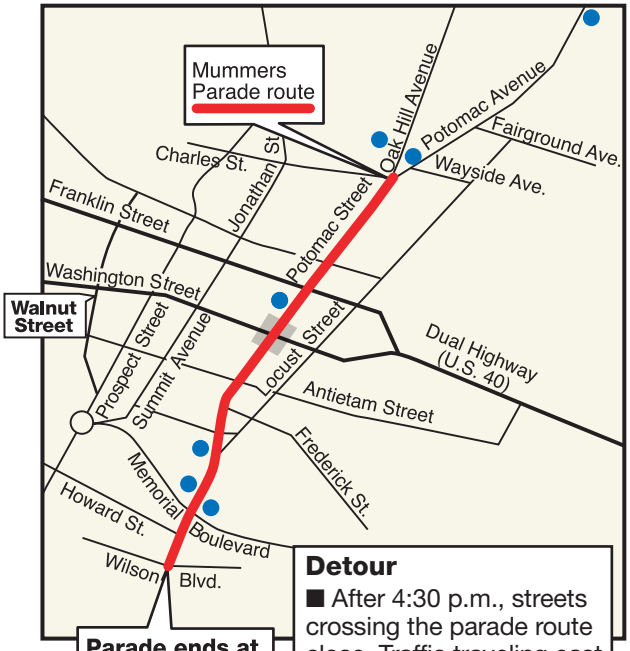
Mummers Parade

Saturday, Oct. 27 • 6 p.m.

Parade route and traffic detour



Parade ends at Wilson Blvd. Units continue to South High, where they disband.

Source: Hagerstown Police Department

● Public toilets

Detour

■ After 4:30 p.m., streets crossing the parade route close. Traffic traveling east on Washington Street will detour south onto Walnut Street to Antietam Street, east on Antietam to Locust Street, and north to U.S. 40.

■ Traffic traveling west on Franklin Street will be able to cross during breaks in the parade.

Street closings

Cross streets along the parade route are shut down at 4:30 p.m. Northern Avenue, Franklin Street, East Avenue, Antietam Street and Wilson Boulevard remain open as cross-over streets will be managed by law enforcement during breaks in the parade.

No Parking

■ 8 a.m. First block of Jonathan Street to alley on south side.

■ After 11 a.m. Potomac Street from Charles Street to Memorial Boulevard; 100 block of West Washington Street from Summit Avenue to Prospect Street; first block of East Washington Street from Public Square to Cramers Alley; Maple Avenue from Potomac Avenue to Oak Hill Avenue; a portion of Jamison Drive off the west side of Oak Hill Avenue; Potomac Avenue from Magnolia Avenue to Wayside Avenue.

■ After 4 p.m. In front of St. Maria Goretti High School on Oak Hill Avenue; The Terrace from Prospect Avenue to Park Lane; the 700, 800, and 900 blocks of Hamilton Boulevard; Park Lane from The Terrace to Potomac Avenue; portions of Broadway off North Potomac Street; Fairground Avenue from Potomac Avenue to Mulberry Street; Mulberry Street from Fairground Avenue north to the railroad tracks; the west side of South Potomac Street from Wilson Boulevard to South Hagerstown High School's entrance; East Howard Street from South Potomac Street to Pope Avenue; Rose Hill Avenue from Pope Avenue to the curve approaching First Street; Downsville Road from South Potomac Street to Maryland Avenue; Hillcrest Avenue from The Terrace to Potomac Avenue; Oak Hill Avenue from Northern Avenue to Wayside Avenue; a portion of Charles Street from Forest Drive to North Potomac Street; a portion of East Franklin Street from Potomac Street to Cramers Alley; a portion of West Franklin Street from North Potomac Street to Market Alley; a portion of the first block of West Washington Street; South Potomac Street from Memorial Boulevard to Wilson Boulevard.

■ Other side streets near the parade route will be posted as no-parking zones.

■ Vehicles parked in violation on any posted streets will be towed at owners' expense.

■ Chairs or benches placed on sidewalks prior to 8 a.m. Saturday will be removed by Hagerstown's Street Department.

■ The downtown parking decks will be open. Parking will be free Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday afternoon, only the rear entrance from Hays Alley off West Washington Street will be open to the North Potomac Street Parking Deck. To get to that entrance after 5 p.m., take North Jonathan Street and turn right on Wareham Alley next to Azad's Oriental Rug.

The South Potomac Street Parking Deck can be accessed by following Antietam Street west from Locust Street toward Potomac Street, turning right onto Renaissance Way.

Public toilets along route

- Bester Elementary School, 30 Memorial Blvd. — two on north side of bleacher seating, and one handicap portable toilet, two on south side of bleachers
- Cassidy Trucking, 441 S. Potomac St. — two
- Downtown Parking Deck, 25 N. Potomac St. — two
- East Irvin Avenue — one on Oak Hill Avenue side, one on Potomac Avenue side
- Parent Child Center, 998 Potomac Ave. — one
- Bill's Other Yard Sale — one on Potomac Avenue side, two near Oak Hill Avenue railroad tracks