

[REDACTED]

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Sunday, November 29, 2009 9:22 PM
To: fhp@hsmv.state.fl.us
Subject: Tiger Woods OWNS you!

You guys look like a bunch of FOOLS! The rich and famous guy makes your cops look like a squad of Barney Fife's!

Excuse me while i LAUGH at y'all!

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh-hahahahahahahaha!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Next time y'all show up at his door, I hope his lawyer ACTUALLY kicks you in the ass, instead of just figuratively doing so!

Again - ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh-hahahahahahahaha!

[REDACTED]

---

From: FHP
Sent: Monday, November 30, 2009 1:46 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: revelation to the citizenry of this state

The crash involving Tiger Woods has drawn worldwide media attention. The Florida Highway Patrol is charged with conducting a complete and unbiased investigation into the facts surrounding the crash while complying with applicable police practices. Mr. Woods has provided the investigating trooper with the documents required by Florida state statutes that everyone is required to present when they are involved in a vehicle crash. As the investigation into this matter continues, we will not make any comments or provide speculation into the details surrounding crash.

Office of Executive Director
 Florida Highway Patrol
 2900 Apalachee Parkway, MS 44
 Tallahassee, FL, 32399-0500
 Office: 850.617.2301
 Fax: 850.617.5108
www.flhsmv.gov/FHP

MOVE OVER FLORIDA

Move over, Florida. It's the law!

Our Mission: Providing Highway Safety and Security through Excellence in Service, Education, and Enforcement

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, November 28, 2009 4:02 PM
To: undisclosed-recipients
Subject: revelation to the citizenry of this state

Oh My Gosh-- I had no idea that we peons/citizenry can just tell you all police to come back later, because we are napping! (reference Tiger Woods)
Rank Has Its Priveleges!

Wow. Just: Wow. Had this been any old BillyBob or Leroy out there, the MagLite Flashlight would've come out at the mere suggestion you all wait for the person-of-interest's nap to conclude!
 I am stunned. But yet: Not really.

[REDACTED]

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, December 01, 2009 11:40 PM
To: fhp@hsmv.state.fl.us
Subject: incident and laws

I just can't believe what I've been a witness too! This was the most obsurred thing I have ever seen. Tiger Woods has made you guys look rediculous. I was appalled today when I heard an officer reprisenting your long standing and proud profession say "There is no evidence to support any further investigation." What? Are you kidding me? I have seen better police work by a mall cop. Do I even need to go into the details? When it comes to Tiger /cheating on his wife...I don't care. And that said i do believe that it was his private business. But!!!, when it spills out into the street or it results in smacking your tree into a neighbors car...it is public and you don't work for Tiger Woods! The man had blood on his face and none in the car. For the love of god! What if he killed someone in his house? What if the role was reversed? What if we weren't talking about Tiger Woods? Not Enough evidence? I am just shocked! Never in my adult life have I ever written a letter in disgust. Congradulations! You have proven to me and i am sure millions of others....Money Wins!

[REDACTED]

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Sunday, November 29, 2009 9:33 PM
To: fhp@hsmv.state.fl.us
Subject: Tiger Woods

Dear Florida Highway Patrol

I would like to start by commending the FHP as one of the finest law enforcement agencies in North America. Your professionalism and unbiased policy is beyond reproach.

With that, and with what is happening in the news with FHP and the Tiger Wood accident, I have to ask, WHAT THE HELL ARE YOU PEOPLE DOING. The FHP in this incident is being bullied, and mocked by Tiger Woods and is not flattering to the FHP. I see this situation as an embarrassment for the FHP and the dedicated men and women who serve this fine agency.

If this was an incident with joe average, you would not be doing what you are with Tiger Woods. This person was in an accident that needs answers to and he should be forth coming and not hiding behind celebrity status and his lawyers.

I just would like to end this by saying Shame on You FHP and get back to business.

Sincerely

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, December 01, 2009 8:14 PM
To: fhp@hsmv.state.fl.us
Subject: Tiger Woods

Dear FHP,

It seems unlikely to me that someone who has driven out of his driveway thousands of times would hit a fire hydrant and a tree unless he was under the influence of something that was impairing his ability to drive. Your handling of this incident reinforces the popular notion that celebrities and people of wealth get preferential treatment by the police. Shame on you!

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, November 28, 2009 11:13 PM
To: fhp@hsmv.state.fl.us
Subject: Not available

Tiger Woods NOT AVAILABLE for an interview? What is this? For two days the FHP have attempted to interview Woods and his wife without success. Are you kiddn' me? Ever heard of a subpoena or court order? If this was anyone else, they'd be in cuffs and locked-up for not cooperating. There's something seriously wrong with this whole story. How do you know alcohol was not involved when you can't or didn't interview or take blood tests?

We want answers.

Mitch

[REDACTED]

---

From: FHP
Sent: Monday, November 30, 2009 11:00 AM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: Leave The Woods Family Alone

The crash involving Tiger Woods has drawn worldwide media attention. The Florida Highway Patrol is charged with conducting a complete and unbiased investigation into the facts surrounding the crash while complying with applicable police practices. Mr. Woods has provided the investigating trooper with the documents required by Florida state statutes that everyone is required to present when they are involved in a vehicle crash. As the investigation into this matter continues, we will not make any comments or provide speculation into the details surrounding crash.

Office of Executive Director
Florida Highway Patrol
2900 Apalachee Parkway, MS 44
Tallahassee, FL, 32399-0500
Office: 850.617.2301
Fax: 850.617.5108
www.flhsmv.gov/FHP

MOVE OVER FLORIDA

Move over, Florida. It's the law!

Our Mission: Providing Highway Safety and Security through Excellence in Service, Education, and Enforcement

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, November 30, 2009 9:59 AM
To: HSMV-Info
Subject: Leave The Woods Family Alone

Leave Tiger and his family alone. Search warrants and the rest of it is harassment and this is a huge waste of taxpayer time and resources. Get to work and take care of the real criminals out there.

From: FHP
Sent: Monday, November 30, 2009 11:02 AM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE:

The crash involving Tiger Woods has drawn worldwide media attention. The Florida Highway Patrol is charged with conducting a complete and unbiased investigation into the facts surrounding the crash while complying with applicable police practices. Mr. Woods has provided the investigating trooper with the documents required by Florida state statutes that everyone is required to present when they are involved in a vehicle crash. As the investigation into this matter continues, we will not make any comments or provide speculation into the details surrounding crash.

Office of Executive Director
Florida Highway Patrol
2900 Apalachee Parkway, MS 44
Tallahassee, FL, 32399-0500
Office: 850.617.2301
Fax: 850.617.5108
www.flhsmv.gov/FHP

MOVE OVER FLORIDA

Move over, Florida. It's the law!

Our Mission: Providing Highway Safety and Security through Excellence in Service, Education, and Enforcement

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, November 30, 2009 10:21 AM
To: FHP
Subject:

I am truly curious as to why the Florida Highway Police Department is so concentrated on Mr. Woods hitting a fire hydrant and a tree, especially after it has been determined and announced that no alcohol was involved. Is it because he is black? Is it because he is famous and some policemen want to have their names in news stories that are certain to continue as long as the investigation does? Is it because Florida considers it fire hydrants to be as important as human beings and hitting one is a felony?

I assume that Florida has no crime more serious than minor traffic related offenses and this has now become the Florida crime of the year. Or, perhaps, Florida police just have so little to do that when a tree and a fire hydrant are hit your department becomes so overwhelmed with excitement that all available police are assigned to the case.

In the event that some member of the Police department wonders if people around the country might think that your department appears foolish, let me assure you that it does.

As a resident of Cambridge, MA, I am certainly aware that police like to arrest black men "breaking" into their own home and I suppose, in frustration that you can't arrest Mr. Woods for hitting his neighbor's tree and a hydrant, the next best thing is giving one of your officers the thrill of meeting him in person under the pretense of an official "interview."

However, your comical department certainly is giving the rest of the country a good laugh.

Regards,

