

WDBJ Internship Information

WDBJ Television offers internships to college students interested in broadcast television. The station strives to give the student in-depth practical work experience in areas of interest, as well as an overview of the station in general.

We have a limited number of internships available each semester to students enrolled in an accredited college or university.

REQUIREMENTS

To qualify, students must attend an accredited college or university and must provide a letter verifying the student is actively enrolled and will receive academic credit for the internship.

Interns must have a minimum 2.5 G.P.A.

Internships are unpaid and the student must receive academic credit for the internship.

Interns are required to work a minimum of 8 hours a week and no more than 40 hours a week. Summer interns may work up to 40 hours a week. Weekends and/or holidays may be required.

As part of the selection process, applicants will participate in an interview. Those applicants out of the area will be allowed a telephone interview.
